 Meeting Minutes

Members present: Lanette Gorder, Parent Representative; Barbara Mohs, Lakeland Mental Health Center; Katelynn Rebel, Wraparound Facilitator; Kristen DePree, Clay County Social Services; Katrina Stollenwerk, The Village Family Service Center; Carolyn Strnad, Coordinator;

Lanette welcomed everyone to the meeting. There were no additions or corrections to today's agenda. Minutes from the March 3, 2021 meeting were approved. (Katelynn/Barb)

	March	April	May
Billable Hours	47	45	43
Flex funds used	0	0	0
Number of wrap teams	36	38	39
Number of new referrals	2	2	3
Number of team meetings	26	28	24
Number of teams in transition	9	9	14
Number of teams closed this month	0	0	5

Katrina Stollenwerk will be taking over as facilitator while Katelynn is on maternity leave beginning at the end of the month. Katelynn will be back in September. Referrals are being process for youth with large teams and the need to get everyone on the same page. Referrals have been coming in from schools wanting to get a plan together for the student for the summer school break. A number of teams are dealing with truancy issues. Lanette shared that the Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton appears to be doing an informal version of Wraparound. A new superintendent will be starting with the school district beginning in July. Katelynn was not able to meet with school staff last year because of the pandemic. She will look at visiting with school staff upon her return in the fall.

Agency Updates:

The Village Family Service Center is slowly transitioning back to the office for those clients who are comfortable with in person appointments. Staff is slowly returning to in person visits.

Clay County Social Service is back in the office and will begin meeting with clients in person.

Carolyn thanked everyone for their work on this work group over the years she was the Collaborative Coordinator. She will miss working with everyone. Jill Ambuehl has accepted the Collaborative Coordinator's position and will begin in that role on July 1.
